Ephesians 4-6

The _____ that we are called to as followers of Jesus should permeate to every aspect of our lives.

The way that Jesus has set up his relationship with the _____ is meant to be the way that a husband and wife work together in a _____.

Jesus models _____ leadership.

_____ is a partnership and a covenant where two people are always watching out for the other one.

When we make Jesus the reason that we keep our vow and remain faithful, then we've based our faithfulness on the only thing that will never _____.

Teach your kids to know _____, because that's ultimately the only thing that matters for all eternity.

Training up our children doesn't just mean teaching your kids what the right thing to do is, but _____ for them the way that Jesus calls us to live.
